G. D. P. LEADERS SEE NEGRO VOTE DRIFTING AWAY

Anti-Klan Plank Urged for State Convention to Check Big Losses.

New York, Aug. 28.—Fearful of the effect John W. Davis's Segregist speech will have on the Negro vote in New York State, Republican Party chiefs have set themselves to devising some means whereby this vote may be kept where they think it traditionally belongs—in the Republican Party.

Word has reached them as well as the other political headquarters that it is fast drifting away, some turning to Davis and some to La Follette, and that unless some drastic move is taken to show that the Republican Party is out of sympathy with the Ku Klux Klan the bulk of it may be lost this year.

An Anti-Klan Plank Proposed. In consequence there is now a project on foot to place an anti-Klan plank in the Republican State platform, to take the form of a pronouncement attempting to hold the Democratic Party responsible for the development of the secret organization.

In the event of a close election the Negro vote becomes of real importance in this state, since it is estimated that nearly 100,000 Negro men and women will go to the polls. All three parties are preparing plans by which they hope to capture the bulk of this vote.

Consistent that Mr. Davis's statement had given him the "edge" on the other contenders, Clem L. Shaver, the Davis manager, is organizing a special committee with a Negro at the head to work among the members of the race. Announcement of the name of the chairman will be made in a day or two, Ferdinand Q. Morton, former assistant district attorney, being one of the men under consideration.

The Republicans who have been faced for the last two or three years by an increasing loss among their former negro supporters are waiting to see what action Mr. Coolidge takes on the Davis Klan challenge. Should the president join the Democratic nominees in taking the issue out of the campaign it would simplify their problem immensely.

Praises La Follette. The La Follette-Wheeler people have also opened a drive for the negro vote. James T. Simpson of 313 West 127th Street, former candidate for the Assembly from the Nineteenth District, advised the La Follette headquarters that the Dawes speech had lost many Republican votes in his district.

"Senator La Follette," said Mr. Simpson, "took his stand four square against the Invisible Empire without thought of political consequences, but Davis and Dawes weighed these consequences in the balances of expediency and Dawes the fire-eater, particularly trimmed his anti-Klan paragraphs to fit states like Maine and Indiana. The most influential leaders of our people are supporting La Follette and Wheeler."

Among those who approved Mr. Davis's position was Herman Bernstein, author and journalist, who recently brought a libel suit against Henry Ford because of the latter's attack on Jews. Mr. Bernstein said: "His sympathies and intelligent attitude toward labor, his understanding of America's responsibilities at home and abroad and his courageous stand against the Klan will win for him the support of all those who love America and who desire to see America retain her noblest traditions of liberty and justice and become an even greater and stronger moral fortress in a world torn by intrigue and strife."

TODAY'S EVENTS

GUNNERS OFF TO COMPETE FOR THE HOFFMAN TROPHY

Rifemen of the 108th Regiment here who will represent their respective units in the Hoffman Trophy match at Medina, Saturday, left Auburn today so as to be at the range there a day early and secure some preliminary rifle practice on the range in preparation for the competition shoot. Major and Mrs. Frederick S. Johnston and Capt. and Mrs. Edwin M. Roberts will journey by auto tomorrow to Medina.

Company G of Rochester won the trophy from Company I of Auburn last year, after Company I had the trophy in its possession for seven years. The big shield was offered as a trophy more than 20 years ago by Captain Oscar Hoffman of Rochester, then inspector of small arms practice for the regiment.

The Hoffman trophy match is held each year on the range of the company which has the prize in its possession. The match was shot last year on the hilly range at Auburn, where cross currents of air from the ravines that enter the valley where the targets lie caused the marksmen to speak evilly of the sighting gear on their rifles.

Rochester, in spite of the fact it has 10 rifle units included in the infantry, cavalry and Naval Militia organizations in the city, has no rifle range to practice on, so the Hoffman trophy match this year has to be shot on the nearest range to Rochester, that at Medina.

A rule of the 108th Infantry makes the holder of the other competing teams of the regiment on the day of the annual rifle shoot, so Captain William Price and the members of Company G in addition to getting a rifle team in shape to defend the trophy against all comers from the regiment, is preparing to entertain the members of the competing teams at a luncheon at the Medina range Saturday noon and a dinner at the Medina Armory Saturday evening.

The dinner will be an occasion of note, as included in the competing teams will be 29 riflemen, picked from the various companies of the regiment while it was on the range at Peekskill this summer, who will represent the 108th Infantry at the national rifle match at Camp Perry, O., in September. Among the guests of honor at the dinner Saturday evening will be Col. J. F. Thompson, commanding the 108th, a number of prominent military men of Western New York.

To Assemble at Armory. The rifle teams representing units of the 108th stationed at Ogdensburg, Watertown, Oswego, Syracuse, Auburn, Geneva, Elmira, Hornell, Medina and Rochester will assemble at the Medina Armory Saturday morning before going to the range to begin the rifle match at 9 o'clock. Many of the teams from the more distant cities will reach Medina Friday and spend the night at the Company F Armory. The range officer will be Major F. S. Johnston of Auburn, commanding the second battalion of the regiment. The medical officer on duty will be Capt. George H. Clark of Rochester, senior medical officer of the regiment. The teams will consist of three men each and the shooting will be slow fire at 200, 300 and 500 yards. The possible score per team in this match is 450 points. The Company G team captured the trophy last year with a total score of 417, the highest ever made by any team of the regiment in the shoot for the Hoffman trophy.

CAPTAIN AND THREE OF CREW MISSING; HURRICANE HITS BOAT

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 28.—Captain Devon and three members of the crew of the schooner Julia F. C. are missing since the craft was hit by the hurricane off the Bird Island on Tuesday night. The schooner, with her jib torn away, mainmast gone at the head and her cabin wrecked, was last reported dragging her anchor 13 miles from Bird Island. The fishing smack Marina 2nd, was the last vessel to report sighting the crippled schooner. Captain Anderson of the fishing smack said he was unable to get near the stricken vessel because of the rough seas but that the sounding of his horn brought no sign of life from the schooner.

Several fine scores were made in the day's play, the lowest tally being made by City Judge Kennard Underwood who copped an 80 for the 18 holes. Funeral of Mrs. Carr. The funeral of Mrs. Maria J. Carr, widow of the late Jonathan Carr, of this city, was held from the home of her son, Harry B. Carr, 94 Seymour Street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and was largely attended. Horning, Detroit, Mich., and her son, Harry, of this city. Being unable to make the trip to Auburn from Detroit this Spring, she lovingly and willingly waited the time she could come, but was unable to make it. Up to the last she displayed a willing and contented mind, being patient and thoughtful of others.

The floral tributes which were many and beautiful, testified to the esteem in which she was held. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Union Springs Cemetery. Bearers were her nephews.
