

Social Notes and Personals

Stanley Wade returned from a two week's vacation spent in Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hamilton of 41 Capitol Street have returned from a motor trip to New York City and New Jersey points. They returned by way of the Delaware Water Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelley of 19 Mann Street have returned to their home after spending the week-end with relatives at Shortsville, and at Lake Ontario.

DRY LAW VIOLATORS AND GUN TOTERS SCORED BY ROTARY SPEAKER; ISSUES WARNING ON RADICALISM

Guy B. Moore of Buffalo, district attorney of Erie County, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, spoke vigorously at the Rotary Club dinner at the Osborne House last evening on the Responsibility of Citizenship.

DEFENSE DAY PLANS ARE ADVANCING

Interest of Community Aroused; Parade Moves Near Completion.

Plans for the big Defense Day observance here on September 12 are that will be held that day. Interest is apparently on the ascendancy and there are indications on every hand that there will be a large and hearty participation in the great parade that will be held that day.

KIWANIS HEARS TALK ON AVIATION

Cayuga Air Pilot of War Days Also Touches on World Flight.

Members of the Kiwanis Club were entertained following lunch this noon by Paul R. Chappell of Cayuga who gave an interesting address on aviation and the American attempt to encircle the globe by air.

Town Talk in Auburn

Seek Operators' Licenses—The rainy weather of yesterday gave Auburnians and residents of the country towns an opportunity to get to the County Automobile License Bureau at the Court House and get their operators' licenses.

FIND PRAISE OF HORNSBY EARNED

Chicago, Sept. 3.—(By the Associated Press.) When President Heydler of the National League proclaimed that, in his judgment, Rogers Hornsby was a greater batsman than Babe Ruth, the admirers of the Bambino, after a search through the records, discovered to their amazement that Heydler was exactly right.

SEASON AT LAKE NEARING CLOSE

Concessions at Lakeside Park will come to a close this Saturday night and the regular Summer season will be over following a period of over three months in which the popular lake resort was largely patronized by Auburnians and out of town vacationists.

Open Minds in Politics. By invitation Mrs. C. A. Noble of New York City will give an informal talk on The Open Minds in Politics at the Kan-Ya-To Inn, Skaneateles, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Noble will be introduced by Mrs. Hamilton White of Syracuse.

SCHOOL BOOKS and SCHOOL SUPPLIES HANLON'S BOOK STORE 136 Genesee Street, Cor. William

New Autumn Fashions. Smart Apparel for Women and Misses. Fur Specialists Seven State Street. Includes an illustration of a woman in a long dress.

COLWELL'S SCHOOL BOOKS and SUPPLIES Covers Free

Gold Plated Genuine Gillette at only 98c each

ADAMS. This is the identical Gillette Razor that was formerly sold in a Gold Plated case with 12 blades at $6.00. It differs only that it is now put up in a genuine leather covered velvet lined case and contains two blades.

MOSHER'S SQUAD SCOURS COUNTY

Sheriff Edwin E. Mosher and squad of state troopers are scouring the Southwest section of the county today for the purpose of getting evidence which may lead to the arrest of the burglars who rifled the M. W. Snyder drug store in Aurora and the general store of Benny Brown at Aurora last night.

KOENIG'S POINT NOTES

The annual picnic and outing of the Corona Typewriter Works of Groton will be held at Koenig's Point Owasco Lake next Saturday. The program which has just been completed will include dinner, dancing, music and an afternoon of athletic contests, sports, a baseball game, boating and bathing if the weather is not too chilly.

Gift for Retired P. O. Employee

Joseph Coughlin of Nelson Street who retired last week on pension following a service of 30 years with the Auburn Post Office at night watchman's surprise recently was given a gift from employees of the Post Office as a token of the high esteem they held for their old working companion.

Send your guests to The Hanning Hotel

Where it is clean, new, cool and comfortable.—Advertisement.

Coughlin Pleads Guilty

Arthur Coughlin of Aurora pleaded guilty to reckless driving of automobile before Justice of Peace John E. Murray of Aurelius this morning. A fine of $10 and 30 days in jail, with suspension of the jail bit during good behavior was imposed by Justice Murray.

Board of Managers to Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of The Home will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Grant Avenue building.

Thursday Big Sale Day-Lower Prices

Big Special Loin Steak Sale. SUGAR CURED HAMS. MILD CURED BACON. FRESH KILLED VEAL. SEASON AT LAKE NEARING CLOSE. BUTTER. POTATOES. PEACHES. THE MOHICAN COMPANY.