REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES SWEEP COUNTY

DAYTON IS THE ONLY DEMOCRAT TO CARRY THE CITY OF AUBURN

Roosevelt Gets Slim Lead of 226 in City, But Piles Up Big Margin in Towns. KLAN VOTE IN RURAL SECTIONS CLEARLY REFLECTED IN RETURNS

Caruga County and the City of Auburn voted strong yesterday for Calvin Coolidge for president of the United States and many of the Republicans of Auburn shifted their position in the voting machines to the Democratic column and voted for Alfred E. Smith for re-election as governor of the State of New York.

The lone bright spot for the Democrats was the fact that Charles A. Dayton, Democratic candidate for sheriff, carried the City of Auburn by nearly 800 votes. That was not enough for Mr. Dayton to win for the county returns swamped the aspirations of the Democratic candidate.

The largest electorate that ever voted in the county turned out to the polls and the voting was early. In Auburn half of the entire vote was polled before 11 o'clock in the morning and in the final hour the inspectors had it easy caring for the 11th hour voters who were few.

Auburn took its place in the up-state cities in the Republican column for governor. Two years ago Governor Smith carried the city by nearly 1,800 votes. Yesterday Mr. Roosevelt carried the city by a few hundred votes.

Women voted stronger this year than at any time since they have been enfranchised. Women were a big factor in the general election results.

Crowds Filled Streets. Never did a more demonstrative crowd choke the business section of Auburn than last evening. The streets were packed with solid walls of humanity eagerly awaiting the news of election flashed from the screens in front of The Citizen and Advertiser-Journal offices.

It was a carnival crowd and good nature prevailed all evening until the newspapers flashed on their screens that Gov. Alfred E. Smith had been conceded the election as governor for another term. Hundreds waited for reports from other cities in the state and reports on the Coolidge-Davis race for president.

While there were thousands in the streets there were large audiences at the theaters, at the Chamber of Commerce, various clubs about the city and at private homes where returns were furnished by special telegraph service or over the radio.

The election this year was noteworthy in that it was the first time that returns from far distant points were received through the air by radio equipment and, every home where an apparatus was installed had a jolly crowd getting first hand information and enjoying a social evening.

Through Longer Late. It was well after midnight when the crowds in the business section had been satisfied with the returns. For some time a fat wallet and there to others a slim tank roll and there was the usual coterie of "I told you so's."

AUBURN IN FAVOR OF BOND ISSUE

Auburn favored the proposed $3 million dollar bond issue for preservation and improvement of state parks by a majority of 1052 yeas. There were 2,525 votes in favor of the appropriation and 1,473 votes against it in the city districts.

Charles A. Dayton, defeated candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, early this morning congratulated his opponent Willis L. Miller, Republican candidate elected sheriff in yesterday's voting.

Mr. Dayton thanked his friends for the admirable support rendered him during the campaign and stated he was satisfied in every way with the assistance his friends and workers gave him during the campaign.

Some Fast Voting. The voting in the City of Auburn yesterday demonstrated that the people knew how to operate the voting machines. Before 11 o'clock more than one-half of the registered vote had been cast and the voters operated the machine levers at a rate of better than one a minute.

In some of the districts yesterday there was some trouble with the voting machines. They were of a minor character and soon straightened out by Joseph Hookhorn and James J. Carr, the two custodians of the machines. The troubles had no effect in polling the entire vote in any of the districts. In fact the inspectors had a soft snap in the late hours of the afternoon attending to the few votes that were out.

In Auburn President Coolidge had a plurality of 2,432 over John W. Davis for president. Governor Smith lost the city by 226 to Theodore Roosevelt for governor. This was a reversal from two years ago when Governor Smith had a plurality of nearly 1,800 in Auburn.

Luan Loses Auburn. Lieutenant Governor Luan ran behind the head of his ticket, losing Auburn by a plurality of 955. Other candidates on the Democratic state ticket lost the city by pluralities ranging from 700 to 1,400 votes.

Congressman John Taber carried Auburn by the slim plurality of 440 against Michael J. Maney of Geneva. Senator Charles J. Hewitt of Locke also evidently received the barb of many Republicans for the only carried Auburn by the slim plurality of 203. But they had little to worry about for their constituents in the rural sections made up for the difference in the city by voting their party ticket.

Litgow Osborne made good his pre-election assertions that he would cut the usual plurality of Senator Hewitt this fall.

The County Victors. Sanford G. Lyon of Aurora received a plurality of 2,150 for the office of member of Assembly in the 24 districts of Auburn over Harry A. Gleason of Auburn, his Democrat opponent.

For the office of Sheriff, Charles A. Dayton, Democrat, carried his home town by a plurality of 753. But this vote was not strong enough to overcome the big vote cast for Willis L. Miller of Port Byron in the rural communities.

Harry D. Benham received the

BIG STORE HEAD DIES IN NEW YORK

James S. Pethybridge of Springport received a plurality of only 1,547 in Auburn showing the effect of the women's vote for his opponent, Mrs. Lucille Chisholm of the Town of Mentz.

The variance of pluralities for the various candidates showed that voters knew how to split on the voting machines and do that little trick right speedily.

As the news of Republican victory was flashed throughout the county fiery flares of burning crosses lighted the women's vote for his opponent, Mrs. Lucille Chisholm of the Town of Mentz.

ANOTHER LITTLE JOB FOR THE TAX-PAYER

"Unless the Federal or local governments can give the public lower rates," says Herbert Hoover, world authority on economics, "there is no use undertaking the gamble (government ownership) . . . nor will the public secure better or more impartial service under government ownership."

"If the history of other governments operating public utilities counts, the inefficiency in government would not be taken up in rate increases, by which the actual user pays, but by lumping it onto the tax-payer."
