

Social Notes & Personals

Miss Mary O'Brien of 135 Seymour Street has returned home after spending a year visiting friends and relatives in Chicago.

DELANEY TRIAL IS MAGNET

Miss Kent Gives Version of Quarrel At Skating Rink.

The court room at the Court House was well filled again this morning with spectators interested in the trial of David Delaney.

TOASTS ADD TO INTERESTING MEET

Miss Shepard Gives Talk At Joint Meet of League and Welfare Bodies.

The Cayuga County League of Women Voters and the Cayuga County Children's Welfare Committee held their semi-annual meeting jointly yesterday afternoon at the Home-Steak, 118 North Street.

RUNDLES' WILL CASE TO BE TAKEN TO HIGHER COURT

Attorney Frank S. Coburn, executor for Mrs. B. Louise Laird, executor and legatee under the will of the late James B. Rundles of Auburn has filed notice of appeal with Surrogate Walter E. Woodin from decree denying probate of the will and ordering a new trial.

ROTARY PONDER'S SUMMER MEETS

Short Travesty on Evolution Squabble Is Surprise Sprung At Today's Session.

Announcement was made by President W. B. Hoefner at today's meeting of the Rotary Club in the Osborne House Rainbow Room that a vote of the membership will be taken on the matter of holding Summer gatherings of the club at next week's regular meeting.

ICED TEA when pure, delicious

"SALADA"

is used, is a satisfying and refreshing summer-beverage.

but failed to prove anything. The suit produced, however, one long laugh and the meeting adjourned with a collection taken by the music vendor's ape-like helper.

ADVERTISE IN THE CITIZEN.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 9:30 o'clock this morning at Holy Family Church when Miss Elizabeth M. Gallery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gallery of 11 Silver Avenue, was united in marriage to William J. McMahon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McMahon of 112 North Hoopes Avenue.

Paul testified to his remonstrating with one of the Delaney youths after Delaney had bumped into his companion, Miss Evelyn Kent, with such force as to cause her to become ill.

Following the business meeting, Miss Shepard of New York, the principal speaker, was heard. Miss Shepard gave a vivid account of the national convention of the League of Women Voters, which was held in Richmond, Va., in April.

Decree was granted settling the estate of Fred M. Harrington in the estate of Fred M. Harrington and Frederic N. Burritt as administrators of the estate of Minnie B. Harrington of Weedsport.

THE UNEXCELLED LINE OF FIREWORKS

Advertisement for Howard Mulcahy fireworks featuring a picture of Uncle Sam and a list of products including Sparklers, Roman Candles, Rockets, Vertical Wheels, Colored Mines, Burst's Rockets, etc.

Advertisement for Colwell's Choice Books for June Brides and Graduates, featuring stationery and leather goods.

Albert Wyllie, a youth who was at the rink during the evening told Paul and the defendant rolling about on the ice during the scrap and gave such incidents regarding the evening he had been skating with John Delaney, one of the twins and had been skating with him only a short time before the row.

Talks—May A quiet wedding took place this morning at 11 Lansing Street, when Miss Margaret Louise Tallmadge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton Tallmadge, became the bride of Frederick Arthur May of Cornell University, son of Frederick May of Brooklyn.

Y CAMP ON LAKE OWASCO OPENED; 35 BOYS ON HAND

The "Y" Camp on Owasco Lake was officially opened for the 1925 season today. Some 35 boys were motored to the beautiful summer vacation site maintained by the local Y. M. C. A. to enjoy the ensuing two weeks of open air life at camp.

"Only Through Retail Stores"

"OUR products are sold only through retail stores. We warn all persons against peddlers claiming to sell—"

Anso Ready-Set Cameras

Combine the simplicity of the box camera with the small size of the folding one. No focusing, no time adjustment, no shutter opening to fuss with. Simply aim at the picture and press the button and you get many pictures that you would otherwise miss in getting the camera ready.

At the opening of court this afternoon Joseph May, another lad who was skating at the rink that evening, was called. He testified that during the evening he had been skating with John Delaney, one of the twins and had been skating with him only a short time before the row.

Funeral of Mrs. Coughlin The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Coughlin was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Goslin, No. 63 Cheshell Place, at 9 o'clock this morning. The house was crowded with relatives and friends. The services took place at St. Mary's Church at 9:30 o'clock.

Death of Mrs. Pillsbury Mrs. Edward G. Pillsbury died at her home, 52 Walnut Street early this morning. She had been in failing health for several months but had been feeling better for the past few days. Last night she retired feeling as usual, but about 3 o'clock she awoke and was taken with a heart attack. The family physician, Dr. Coe was at once summoned but little could be done. The end came gently and she passed away into the great beyond very peacefully.

Advertisement for Adams, featuring the slogan 'LET ME BE YOUR DRUGGIST'.

OPEN BIDS IN SALE OF 200 SHIPPING BOARD VESSELS

Washington, June 30.—(AP)—Bids from 20 individuals and companies were opened by the fleet corporation today for the sale of 200 shipping board vessels for scrapping.

Prison Population Boosted

The prison population was enlarged today when 18 more convicts were received. A draft of 13 from Rome and six from Monroe County comprised the 18 new inmates. It is expected a draft of eight more will be received this evening from Syracuse.

Prison Population Boosted

The reason for the large number of new inmates in one day was given out by prison officials as caused by the courts cleaning up their calendars before the hot summer months.

Better Business Committee THE AUBURN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

NOTE—This is the twenty-fourth of a series of advertisements in which will be given the whole problem of the out-of-town concern selling by agents from door-to-door, and their effect upon Auburn.

ADVERTISE IN THE CITIZEN.