ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

Perfect Golf Links and a Bracing Atmosphere Make the Popular Scottish Sport Doubly Enjoyable at

Atlantic City

America's Famous All-Year Resort

The Golf Links of the Atlantic City Country Club have become almost as popular as the resort itself. The links are in the pink of condition and the weather ideal. The bracing salt sea air adds zest to the game and, after a few hours' vigorous exercise, one returns to his hotel refreshed rather than fatigued, and ready for an evening's pleasure on the Boardwalk.

The leading hotels are noted for the excellence of their service and magnificent appointments.

NEW YORK SUPREME COURT, KINGS COUNTY—Anna M. Everit, plaintiff, against Richard R. Shannon and others, defendants: Fort Hamilton Parkway, opposite the entrance of Greenwood Cemetery, near Gravesend avenue, florist plant—In pursuance of a judgment of foreclosure and sale duly made and entered in the above entitled action, and bearing date the 17th day of April, 1914, I, the undersigned, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, by William H. Smith, auctioneer, at the Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange, No. 189 Montague street, in the Borough of Brooklyn, County of Kings, on the 18th day of May, 1914, at 12 o'clock noon, the premises directed by said judgment to be sold, and therein described as follows: All that certain plot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the Borough of Brooklyn, of the City of New York, County of Kings and State of New York, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at a point on the southerly side of Fort Hamilton Parkway, distant two hundred and fifty feet easterly from the corner formed by the intersection of the southerly side of Fort Hamilton Parkway with the easterly side of Chester avenue; running thence southerly parallel with Chester avenue two hundred and one feet, ten and three-quarter inches to the northerly side of Minna street; running thence easterly along the northerly side of Minna street fifty feet; thence northerly parallel with Chester avenue two hundred and one feet, ten and one-half inches to the southerly side of Fort Hamilton Parkway, and thence westerly along the southerly side of Fort Hamilton Parkway, fifty feet to the point or place of beginning. Also all the right, title and interest of the parties of the first part of and in to Minna street and Fort Hamilton Parkway lying in front of and adjoining said premises to the center lines thereof, respectively. The lien of this mortgage shall attach land lying in Minna street and Fort Hamilton Parkway only until such time as the same shall be properly ceded and accepted by the City of New York for street purposes, provided there are no assessments for the opening of said street and parkway, and in the foregoing event said land in said street and parkway shall be considered released from the lien of this mortgage as fully as if a separate release had been executed by the party of the second part or her executors, administrators or assigns. Together with all fixtures and articles attached to or used in connection with said premises, all of which are declared to be covered by this mortgage. Also all that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, together with the frame building now erected thereon, lying and being in the town of Flatbush, in the County of Kings, and State of New York, laid down on a certain map, which was filed on the 4th day of November, A. D. 1868, in the office of the Register of Deeds, in and for the County of Kings, and is entitled "Map of land of heirs of George Martense, deceased, in the town of Flatbush, County of Kings, State of New York, surveyed September, 1868, by T. O. Berry," and known and distinguished as and by lots numbers on said map Eighty-six (86) and One Hundred and Three (103). Being the same premises conveyed by the said David B. Briggs, deceased, by Jacob V. B. Martense and Eliza Ann Martense, his wife; Gertrude Prince and John D. Prince, her husband; Ester Jane Martense and Helen Martense, by deed dated November 1, 1868, and recorded in the Kings County Register's office, in Liber ... of Conveyances, page 135, November 24th, 1868, and being the same premises conveyed by Diedrich Ficken to Richard B. Shannon, by deed, recorded in the Kings County Register's office on the 30th day of September, 1912.—Dated, April 22nd, 1914.

NORWEGIAN FAIR PROSPERS.

Another large crowd was in attendance last night at the bazar now in progress at the Norwegian Lutheran Deaconesses Home and Hospital, Fourth avenue and Forty-sixth street. People from various sections of the city were on hand and the tables, which were well stocked with useful and fancy articles of all descriptions, were generously patronized. The fair started last Saturday afternoon and will come to a close Saturday evening. The affair is being held under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary and the proceeds will be added to the fund established for an addition to the institution. A supper is served each night from 6 to 8 o'clock.
