WELLS IS FILLED AT ITS OPENING

Wells College began its 56th academic year yesterday, with an enrollment of 236 students, the maximum capacity of the dormitories. At the opening exercises Miss Katherine Lummis, the newly elected dean, addressed the students on the Joy of Work.

During the vacation a farm and herd of cattle have been acquired for the purpose of supplying the college dining hall with dairy products.

Mrs. Folio Dead.

The many friends of Mrs. Pelligrino Folio will regret to learn of her death which occurred at the City Hospital at 6 o'clock this morning after an illness of several months. Mrs. Folio came to this city twelve years ago from Italy. She was very well liked in the neighborhood in which she has lived during the entire time she has resided here. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fanny Gentile of this city and three brothers Angelo DeNofrio of this city and Rocco and Tony DeNofrio of Syracuse. The funeral will take place from her late home, 94 Cottage Street Monday morning at 9 o'clock with services at St. Francis' Church at 9:30. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Defer Inquest.
 Coroner's inquest scheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon probing the death of Peter Geriowski, was postponed owing to the coroner receiving a hurry call to another part of the county.
