BRADFORD CLUB ENJOYS BANQUET CLOSING DRIVE

Evans and Lincoln Parent-Teachers Also Hold Meetings.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Bradford School entertained at a banquet in the school building at 8:30 p. m. last night. This banquet was held to celebrate the acquiring of 60 new members to the roster of the club.

The exercises opened with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. A very fine supper was then served the ladies in the room of the school used for this purpose.

Following the supper, short talks and a social session were enjoyed. The ladies engaged in a Virginia Reel and two of the ladies present danced an Irish Jig which was the hit of the evening program.

Mrs. Sarah E. Rouds, principal of Bradford Street School, delivered an address of welcome to the new members of the association of that school. Other short talks were given by members of this club.

Mrs. J. A. Palmer is chairman of the membership committee and under her leadership the recent membership drive was successfully conducted.

The Evans Street School Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at 3:45 in the school building. This was the third meeting of this club so far this season and was presided over by Mrs. James H. Carnody, president. Considerable business was discussed. A committee was appointed to arrange a Christmas party for the children of the school.

Plans were discussed for holding a picnic supper at the close of the membership campaign which is now in progress. The next meeting of the Evans School Parent-Teachers will be held in January, as there will be no meeting of the club in December.

Children of the grades entertained the ladies at yesterday's meeting with piano solos. The selections rendered were: "Pleasant Land"; "Morning Prayer"; "Barbara O'Connell"; "Humming Bird"; "Eleanor O'Connell". Mrs. Frank Emerson of Grant Avenue gave a very interesting travel talk, citing her experiences as a missionary in Africa.

Following the regular business session and entertainment, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

The Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the school building. The meeting was called at 3:00 with Mrs. Henry Owen, club president, presiding. There was a large attendance at the meeting which was held in connection with National Education Week.

Many of the mothers visited at Lincoln School yesterday and attended the various classes of study. This privilege has been extended the public by Superintendent of Schools George F. Barford that any one may visit at the public schools during this week, National Education Week.

Yesterday's program was in charge of the mothers of the Sixth Grade pupils, with Mrs. Blanche Morgan as chairman.

Miss Christie Booth, director of Girl Scout activities in Cayuga County, gave a talk on the work of the Girl Scouts, the pledge which the members take and the Scout songs which all must learn. A demonstration was given by Girl Scouts from Lincoln School of the work which they engage in as members of this splendid organization.

The pupils of the third grade were presented with a banner for having the most mothers at the club meetings during the past month. A social session ensued at the close of the regular program and refreshments were served by mothers of the Sixth Grade pupils.

GLEE CLUBS WILL SING AT EXHIBIT

This evening at 7:30 in the W. Mynderse Rice Post American Legion rooms in Exchange Street, the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club of the High School here will be heard. A very pleasing program has been arranged for this evening's entertainment as a part of the week's program for National Education Week.

At the entertainment in the Legion rooms this evening seats will be reserved for the grown folks who attend. The entertainment given in the Legion rooms last night was largely attended and the offerings of the Students Quartet from the Auburn Theological Seminary was thoroughly enjoyed.

'BONE DOCTOR' TESTIMONY PRESENTED

Widow of Alleged Victim Takes Stand—Others Heard.

Jurors sitting in the trial of Charles Cyganik, the so-called "bone doctor" of Seneca County, devoted considerable time to inspection of X-ray pictures produced by District Attorney Benn Kenyon as his first exhibits in the trial of Cyganik on indictment charging manslaughter in the first degree.

The district attorney had an X-ray demonstration machine in the court room so that the jurors could see for themselves just where the alleged fractures to the spine of Peter Gierowski were, taken and explained by Dr. S. E. Austin.

The indictment against Cyganik charges him with the unlawful practice of medicine affecting the person of Peter Gierowski and that in treating him he did manipulate, wrench, twist, bend and strike the body of Gierowski, inflicting grievous bodily injuries from which Gierowski died on September 13 last.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Mosher overruled a demurrer to the indictment interposed by Albert H. Clark, attorney for the defendant. Some delay was caused in getting a jury through the regular panel being exhausted. A special panel of 23 names was drawn from this county box.

Jury Is Secured. It was late in the afternoon when a jury was secured satisfactory to District Attorney Kenyon and Mr. Clark, and the case opened.

Mary Gierowski, wife of the deceased Peter Gierowski, was the first witness called by District Attorney Kenyon. She testified that her husband fell from a cherry tree at their home on the afternoon of June 30 last and had his back broken. That he was taken to the City Hospital where he remained for treatment two weeks and three days, and was then brought home.

Mrs. Gierowski testified that her husband showed signs of improvement daily getting more and more use of his limbs. He was excused in a plaster paris cast, said cast being in halves which could be adjusted when lying on his back or otherwise.

The witness stated that the defendant Cyganik first came to her home on August 14 and started treatment of Gierowski. According to her story, her husband began to get worse and he died on September 13. The direct examination of Mrs. Gierowski was finished between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening.

Widow Cross Examined. This morning the cross examination of Mrs. Gierowski by Attorney Albert H. Clark for the defence was brief. He succeeded in getting admissions that she moved the plaster cast and bathed her injured back at intervals, before Cyganik came to the house. Very little definite information regarding the exact extent of the alleged manipulations of the defendant was elicited, showing the defendant responsible for the death of Gierowski.

Dr. S. E. Austin was the second witness called by the prosecution. He testified he specialized in X-ray examinations and made two pictures at the home of Gierowski for Dr. Frank A. Bennett, Gierowski's physician on July 12 and three films dissected from the body at autopsy after the death of Gierowski. The first pictures were made at the City Hospital and the second lot at his office.

A demonstration machine was installed, lighting up the pictures so that the jurors could follow the description of Doctor Austin of the injuries to Gierowski's spine. The pictures showed indication of dislocation of the 10th, 11th and 12th ribs on the right side and a crushing or fracture of the seventh and ninth ribs.

Attorney Albert H. Clark objected to the X-ray views being introduced as they did not show connection of the defendant with the injuries established in any way. The exhibits were admitted and exceptions taken by Mr. Clark.

Coroner Testifies. Coroner Paul M. Parker testified to being called to the Gierowski home after the death and directing that the body be removed to the undertaking rooms of Undertaker William H. Yeager. That the autopsy was performed by himself and Dr. William E. Walsh, coroner's physician. The spine was dissected from the body wrapped in paper and turned over to Dr. S. E. Austin for X-ray plates. The spinal cord was also dissected and sent to Buffalo laboratories for examination.

Joseph Gusk of No. 213 1/2 State Street, manufacturer of soft drinks testified that he had been instrumental in bringing Cyganik to the Gierowski home through information given by one John Antoniak that the defendant was skilled in bone injuries. He testified that he assisted Cyganik and Mrs. Gierowski attending to Gierowski's back, the rubbings of same and adjusting the belt. That Cyganik had advocated bathing the back with cow's milk.

The direct examination of Coroner Paul M. Parker was not finished before the noon recess and was completed this afternoon. His testimony was in detail regarding the condition of organs of Gierowski's body with particular attention to heart and spine. The heart of the dead man was reported as normal. Coroner Parker testified as to condition of spine along the lines shown by X-Ray examination.

The second witness this afternoon was Burton G. Simpson of Buffalo, pathologist of the state institute for study of malignant diseases. His testimony was an examination of Gierowski's spinal cord which was taken from his body at the autopsy and sent to the state institute laboratory at Buffalo for examination.

HOME IN GRANT AVENUE OBSERVES VISITING DAY

Yesterday was visiting day at The Home in Grant Avenue and hundreds of local people visited the institution, many for the first time. Members of the Board of Managers acted as guides and the purpose and accomplishments of The Home were explained to the visitors.

The building from cellar to garret was open for inspection and the improvements in the past year which assisted the comfort and convenience of the inmates were described.

This is the annual harvest home week for The Home and a request was issued several days ago to the effect that The Home would gratefully receive any gifts of vegetables, canned fruits or preserves that might be given by the charitable households of Auburn. This request was readily and charitably responded to and The Home is the recipient of many liberal gifts of canned goods, lard, china, etc. The Home larder seems to be well able to cope with the severity of a coming winter.

POPULARITY CONTESTS TO FEATURE MOOSE INDOOR FAIR STARTING SATURDAY

Everything is progressing nicely for the Loyol Order of Moose indoor fair to be held for seven days, commencing Saturday. William Nugent, chairman of the Contest Committee, today announced that four popularity contests will be held and that entries can be made any day this week.

The most popular girl will receive a beautiful diamond ring. The man considered the most popular will receive a diamond stick pin; the boys' prize will be a bicycle and the little girls will be a diamond ring. In addition to these prizes $300 in gold will be given away during the week to lucky ticket holders.

Mr. Nugent is having a busy time of it. A number of people, young and old, who believe they have a chance to be awarded one or more of the prizes amounting to over $1,000 have called upon Mr. Nugent at the Moose Club, State Street and expressed a desire to enter some of the contests, but Mr. Nugent says there is room for others and those who would like to make a try for a prize are requested to call before the end of the week.

Some of the callers say they want to enter just for the fun of the thing. Others are more serious and would like to get one or more of the valuable prizes.

Mr. Nugent is very anxious to find some more young ladies to enter the diamond ring contest. He can be found in the Moose Club every afternoon and evening.

The entire inside of the Auditorium Annex will be transferred into a real fairland, and the outside will take on a gala attire. No time or expense is being spared by the Moose members to make this event one of the largest ever held in Auburn.

Seneca Falls Lodge, Loyol Order of Moose, will send over at least 200 of its members on one of the nights of the Moose band will accompany the members. Geneva, Cortland, Syracuse, Fulton, Oswego, and Ithaca lodges are planning to send delegations on one of the seven nights.

UNIVERSITY CLUB HEARS TALK BY PROF. MOREHOUSE

The November meeting of the Woman's University Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Albert H. Clark in Bellevue Place. Prof. Russell Morehouse was engaged to address the gathering in place of Mrs. Leslie O. Wallace who was unable to attend owing to injuries received in an automobile accident in Geneva Tuesday. Professor Morehouse spoke on the present crisis in the Public Schools.

During the business session it was decided to postpone the card party that was to be held in the Woman's Union this month, for the benefit of the Scholarship fund, to some future date which will be announced later.

FALL HARVEST SUPPER TO BE ENJOYED AT CALVARY

A Fall Harvest Supper will be put on tomorrow night at 6 o'clock at the dining room of the Calvary Presbyterian Church. The supper is being put on by members of the Sunday School in the interests of the orchestra. The session of the church has appointed as its social committee, J. J. Ogden, Harry Cooper and Clarence Hood.

The above committee and promises to well reward their efforts. The orchestra will play throughout the evening.

Ridwell Tent Meets. Jane Bidwell Tent, No. 40, Daughters of Veterans, held its regular meeting in G. A. R. Hall last evening. This was entirely a business meeting with President Lillian Ferguson in the chair.

The committee on the dinner given Saturday, November 17, for veterans, their wives and widows, was paid much credit for the splendid "eat" and decorations which it arranged for on that occasion.

Officers for the year 1924 were nominated at last night's meeting. At the next regular meeting of the organization which will be held December 5, all members are urged to be present, as election of officers for the coming year will take place at the meeting.

ker testified as to condition of spine along the lines shown by X-Ray examination.

The second witness this afternoon was Burton G. Simpson of Buffalo, pathologist of the state institute for study of malignant diseases. His testimony was an examination of Gierowski's spinal cord which was taken from his body at the autopsy and sent to the state institute laboratory at Buffalo for examination.

MANY NOVELTIES TO MARK ROTARY SHOW TONIGHT

In addition to the cast of prominent local business men who will take part in the production of the Womanless Wedding here tonight and tomorrow evenings at the Auditorium, there will be several specialty numbers to augment the regular cast on the program.

R. C. Bertram Hole, talented Auburn vocalist who is ever pleasing to the music-lovers here, will render several vocal selections during the course of the play. Charles Vaughn Holley, former light opera singer, will present an impersonation of the famous female impersonator Julian Ellinger. Stewart Roe, who has appeared here in several local productions, will be a feature specialty number in the role of an Egyptian dancer.

The Masonic Quartet of this city will be heard on these two nights also. Fred O. Nash and Robert W. Taylor will sing some well-known ballads. William E. Morrissey, popular Auburn comedian and Miles L. Hanlon, who has the part of butler in the Womanless Wedding, will render some very amusing comedy songs.

A chorus of Auburn High School boys, impersonating girls, and under the leadership of Rotarian Walter Marx, will dance and sing to the tune of Maggie.

There will also be choruses made up of High School girls and local society matrons.

PLANS LAID FOR MEMORIAL OF ELKS HELD DECEMBER 2

Plans for the Elks' Lodge Memorial were laid last night at a meeting in the club rooms. The services will be held December 2 at 8 o'clock at the Elk's Temple. Since the last memorial service 11 members have died.

They are Henry F. Mott, John G. Langham, Henry J. Lozon, William D. Vincent, Raymond E. Hine, Thomas H. Garrett, Jr., Dennis F. Connor, Frederick K. Bennett, George W. Bancroft, Charles D. Stokes, and Martin Brinkerhoff.

The public is invited to attend these services which will be held on a Sunday evening. A fine musical program has also been arranged. As yet the committees to handle the services have not been named.

At last night's meeting, Edward Moore who has been a trustee of the organization for the past 20 years handed in his resignation. His successor will be named at the next meeting. It was also announced that another litigation would take place at the regular meeting on December 12.

MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN AT SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

orchestra, Boys Glee Club and Girls Glee Club, all under the personal supervision of Professor Scovill, rendered numbers and all were well received by their fellow classmates. One of the three is up to full strength as yet but despite this, a good showing was made. It was the first appearance of the three organizations before the student body this semester.

Before the presentation Professor Scovill called attention to the concert to be given Tuesday evening by the Auburn Symphony Orchestra at the Auditorium and also the Rotarians' Womanless Wedding. He asked the students to give their earnest support in the two worthwhile enterprises.

After the program Principal Russell

Morehouse announced that the football picture will be taken tomorrow noon at 12:20 o'clock. He read the names of the seven students attaining 90 per cent or more in all their examinations and stated that the Junior Class rings and pins have arrived.
