THREE MORE DAYS' GRACE FOR FIRST DRAFT OUTFIT

Three Auburn Men and Eight from Towns to Have Another Week Before Mobilization, New Order Directs.

(Special to The Citizen)
Syracuse, Sept. 1.—Special messengers carrying certified lists of men drafted for the first quota of the National Army will be sent to every local board in this district tonight if necessary to enable local board to mail notices and prepare for enrollment on time.

Next Saturday morning the first of Auburn's draft army will leave for Wrightstown, N. J. That was the order received here this morning and with it came the notice that Auburn's quota on the five per cent. basis would be three men. The direct orders from the provost marshal general finds the Auburn board prepared.

Just who the three men from Auburn will be could not be said this morning, as the delay of the district board in certifying back the men certified by the local board has caused the date for mobilization of the first drafted men to be changed. The first orders received some time ago read that the men from this city falling under the five per cent rating would leave the city for Wrightstown on the fifth of September.

Auburn's local board has certified 11 men for the draft to date and these names have been sent to the District Board at Syracuse and as yet they have not certified these names back. When this is done early next week the local board will pick the three men that will represent Auburn as the first of the drafted men.

Your board will send to Camp Dix, Wrightstown, New Jersey, on September 8, 1917, three men, all of whom must be within your net quota and all of whom shall have been certified back to you from the District Board having jurisdiction over the territory in which you are located.

These men are to be selected with care by the local board from the first 11 that have been certified. The order advises that those men with trades and having military experience be sent as far as possible. The idea is to have these men ready to take partial charge of the other drafted men from this city when the final order for mobilization comes. They will form a skeleton organization at Camp Dix.

Mayor Koon had not returned from New York this morning and the board was waiting to take action on the names of those men who claimed exemption at the session of the board last Wednesday morning. Tuesday morning a new batch will be ready and present at the City Hall to enter their claims for exemption and by that time the board should have disposed of the last group of 15 men. An extra session may be necessary but City Clerk Joseph S. Hanlon said this morning that all would depend on the arrival of the mayor.

The extension of time granted the district board is believed will be enough to enable them to pass on the certified lists and so by Saturday everything will be in readiness for the first quota of the drafted army to leave for camp. The district board has been expecting an extension of time and the Syracuse men have 31 boards to handle. The fact that Monday is a holiday causes more delay. It will mean extra work and lots of it for the board to get the district work finished up.

Members of the County Exemption Board are awaiting the certified list of eligible names from the Federal District Board, from which to select the first eight men that will be called to the colors under the selective draft, ordered to entrain for Wrightstown, N. J., Saturday, August 31. The board expects to get the certified list from the Federal Board early next week in time to notify the men that will be called. It is the desire of the Board to get the certified list at the earliest possible moment in order that they may notify the eight men called in time to give them a chance to attend to their personal affairs before leaving home.

The new order for mobilizing the first five per cent. Saturday, September 1, in Officers' Reserve Corps, veterinary section.

The many friends of Miss Violet May Wolfe will be pleased to learn that she is recovering nicely from the fall which she suffered at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Harold Stevens at 122 North Fulton Street last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sharp, Merrill, Mildred and Alice Sharp, will leave tomorrow for a motor trip to New York. They will spend a week with relatives in the metropolis and its vicinity.

Police Nab 12-Year-Old Globe Trotter of Etna

A youthful globe trotter was discovered by the Auburn police and now is back home with his parents at Etna. From Etna, located to the South of Auburn, young James Hillick had a premature case of the wanderlust. The lad is only 12 years old and he was found ambling about the streets of the city. Dressed in a Scout suit and filled with the world conquest idea, the young lad set out from home seven weeks ago.

"I have had a great time but I guess I want to go home," said the boy to the local authorities. So father was called and yesterday he took his wayward son back home. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hillick and they have been hunting in vain for their youngster since his sudden disappearance seven weeks ago.

"I wanted to see the world but the world's a pretty big place and not near as interesting as I thought," said the boy who willingly described his adventures to the police here. The lad had been sleeping in barns, hay stacks and fields and had managed to live on fruits and what little food he could beg from farmers along the way.

He had taken his time and Auburn was the first city that he had hit on his travels. Walking and catching rides was the lad's method of locomotion.

Send Off Banquet for the Drafted Men Is Put Over

Because in the change of plans for mobilizing the first five per cent. of the city and county's quota of the new army, from September 5 to September 8, Chairman John M. Sheldahl of the Special Committee named to take charge of the banquet for the men at the Osborne House Tuesday night, announced this afternoon that the dinner would be postponed. Just what date the dinner will be held on, he did not know definitely, but said that tentative arrangements had been made to hold it Thursday evening. This will be known definitely Monday, if the local Draft Boards receive their certified lists from the Federal Board by that time and it is expected that they will.

Plans for giving the conscripted young men a send-off have been enlarged and the committee now plans to invite as many of the Auburn and Cayuga County young men called for the new army as possible. Owing to the uncertainty of how many will be certified by the District Board next week, the committee has been unable to make complete arrangements at this time, but will work out further plans the first of the week. At present the committee proposes to have present all of the young men who have been certified by the District Board up to the time of holding the dinner.

The committee in charge of the affair and which is working diligently to make the affair a success and to show the conscripts that the people of Auburn and Cayuga County appreciate the service that they are giving is composed of Mr. Sheldahl, Lyman H. Rust, Charles H. Mauro, Sidney J. Aubin and James C. Carroll.

Speakers who will be present will be men who are prominent in military, official and civic life of the city and county. An effort is to be made to have General Kirby present. Gordon W. Allen, R. C. S. Drummond, Gen. William H. Seward, Judge George B. Turner, P. M. Herron and others are on the programme for addresses.

Man Is Feared Seriously Injured As Auto Turns Over

Sliding on a curve on the Clark Street Road, about a mile outside of the city, an automobile owned and driven by Henry Mueller of 5 Bridge Street Rochester, turned over in the ditch, throwing Mueller, another man, two women and two children who were riding with him out, and injuring Mueller perhaps seriously. Mrs. Mueller, the other woman whose name had not been ascertained up to a late hour this afternoon, and the two children escaped with minor bruises and cuts. Mueller is at the City Hospital where he was taken after the accident. The extent of his injuries had not been fully determined up to the time of going to press.

The party was motoring toward the city when the accident occurred.

TROLLEY SERVICE TO LAKE WILL BE CURTAILED AFTER LABOR DAY

However, a 15 minute headway will be maintained on the Oswego Street division and the cars will be run from the end of the Seymour Street line via Seymour, State, Genesee, Oswego to the Lake. In other words, this schedule is the same as was operated last year.

Due to the closing of Lakeside Park for 1917, the Auburn and Syracuse Electric Railroad Company announces that starting Tuesday next, a 10 minute service will be operated on South Street line from corner of South and Genesee to Stupp's.

THIRD LIKELY TO REMAIN IN CAMP OVER LABOR DAY

Troops Expected to Start South Tuesday or Wednesday—More Men May Be Taken Into Company M, Is the Report.

Company M is still at Pelham Bay Park and with the rest of the Third Regiment the boys await orders to move. From all indications the regiment under Col. E. S. Jennings will start for Spartanburg next week and news received in Auburn gives Tuesday or Wednesday as the date of movement. The excitement following the great parade has died down and regiments are leaving mobilization camps and armories every day.

Earl B. Pratt, a member of Company M, is home on a three days' furlough and he said that from all indications the company would be on the move South by Wednesday. Private Pratt took part in the big parade in New York.

Syracuse advises point to the fact that the regiment is due to move on Tuesday and news received here confirms that report. At any rate the Third is not due to remain in Pelham Bay long. The activities toward recruiting the Third Regiment up to 2,605 men have been heard of with some surprise here.

Boys Are Uneasy. The local fighting men are marking time at Pelham Bay and all are uneasy. Action now that the parade is a thing of the past is what the local boys want and the sooner they move the better they will be pleased.

Great significance is placed on the orders for Company C to recruit to war strength and some have taken this order to mean that the Third will soon be on its way to France. A

FARNSWORTH IS TENDERED MEAL AND A FINE GIFT

Good luck wishes were extended and a fine and dandy gun was presented to Kenneth Farnsworth, an employe of the Empire Gas & Electric Company, by several fellow employes, at a farewell dinner given in his honor, at the American Club in State Street, last evening.

Mr. Farnsworth who has been connected with the Empire Company for several years, was drawn in the city draft. He passed the physical examinations and, being one of the first on the list, expects to be called early. For that reason his fellow workers in the office of the company took the opportunity of dining him and saying their say last night.

Charles W. Whittington presided as toastmaster at the dinner and to him fell the honor of presenting Farnsworth with the gun, which he did in a fitting manner. The gun was a beautiful one, a little finer than the government issues in the matter of finish.

In making the presentation Mr. Whittington informed the guest of honor that it was the hope of his friends that he would never be called upon to use it, and that the war would end before he might see service with the new army, but if upon the time came when he was called upon to use it in the defense of mankind, that they all knew he would be found as true to his country and its cause as the steel of the weapon itself. Mr. Whittington said many nice things to the guest of honor on behalf of the employes of the company.

In accepting the gift, Mr. Farnsworth expressed his deep appreciation for the kind words of his fellows and for the gift and said that he hoped that he always might be found worthy of the sterling weapon that they had given him.

William Moran spoke briefly, expressing the sentiments of the employes in his department of company and of all others.

Others present at the dinner were Charles Lewis, Willard Kidney and Henry Weston. The dinner itself was a corker.
