

MELODY, MIRTH AND NOVELTY IN MINSTREL SHOW

The annual minstrel show of the Columbian Squires and the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Alphonsus Church will be presented at 8:15 o'clock tonight at Emerson Auditorium. A children's matinee attracted a well pleased audience of over 800 Sunday afternoon. The final performance will be staged Tuesday evening. The children of the Cayuga Home for Children were guests of the Squires and the Sodality at Sunday's performance.

The show this year is divided into three parts consisting of "An Irishman's Dream" plus three special acts in the Olio and then concluding with the 1948 Minstrels. The Olio yesterday was

Scouters Called to Launch "Arm of Liberty" Program

President Wilson of the Cayuga County Council of Boy Scouts, stated today that on April 21 a mass meeting of every Scout in the Council will be held at St. Mary's Parish House, Clark Street, to launch an expanded program to give 500 more boys the opportunity to become Cub Scouts, and Senior Scouts. The program scheduled for that night will be launched like a financial campaign.

Each man present will receive a brochure as a personal gift from the Regional Office, Boy Scouts of America. Every boy coming into Scouting as a result of this program will be inducted at the Camporee, May 29, at a huge Court of Honor under the leadership of Robert Nelson, chairman. The program will be warmly greeted and each act was called back for an encore. The settings and costumes for the show are in bright colors and the entire performance was well received Sunday afternoon.

The women of the chorus are Marlene Kroier, Frances Poole, Evelyn McLane, Dorothy Delaney, Rosellen McGovern, Virginia Schmitt, Helen Pennessy, Josephine Gentile, Patricia Ireland, Dorothy John, Nancy Picciano, Marie McGrath, Patricia Krumpal, Jean Vanderloo, Grace Herron, Marianne Sullivan, Barbara Perkins, Marilyn Crawford and Debby Kroier. The men of the chorus are: Peter Ehrsman, Richard Burke, Donald Casper, Joseph Casper, William Casper, George Herron, Harold Casper, Paul Morris, Robert Mayer, Joseph Mahoney, James Marquart, John Mahoney, Richard Maywalt, John Malita, Michael Orpello, David Rubin, James Beaton, Edward Walsh, Donald Pennessy, Robert Enke, Peter Deering, Bernard Doty, Ralph Viscardi, Edward Collier, Fred Delio Stritto, Fred Simon, Ronald Spait, Charles E. Steve Polanski Crowned Champ Of YMCA Contest

The finals in the YMCA table tennis championships took place on Sunday afternoon. Title matches were held in three divisions and champions in each were crowned. Steve Polanski continued his victorious march by defeating David Ford to add another title to the City Championship that he already had won. The scores were 21-18, 22-20 and 21-17. In the Intermediate Division Bob Cole became champion by defeating Larry Colwell 21-19 and 23-21. The Junior champion is Alan Goldman who defeated John Williams in the final match by the scores 21-13 and 21-6.

All arrangements for the final matches were made by Hobart Ford, chairman of the YMCA Table Tennis Committee. This tournament completes the formal table tennis program at the YMCA until fall.

Mrs. George Jones, wife of George Jones of 24 Richardson Avenue died early Sunday morning at the Auburn City Hospital. Born in Maryland she had made her home in Auburn about 40 years. Her age was 54.

Mrs. Jones was a well-known cook in Auburn, having worked in many Auburn homes. She was a member of St. Mary's Church and a member of the Rosary and Scapular Society of the church. She also was a member of the Women's Club of the Booker T. Washington Community Center. She is survived by her husband, several brothers and sisters in Maryland.

Funeral services will be held at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning at the funeral chapel of Lester E. Brew and at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery. Friends may call at 48 South Street on Monday evening from 7 to 9 and on Tuesday afternoon and evening from 5 to 5 and 7 to 9.

The Rosary and Scapular Society of St. Mary's Church will conduct services at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

Funeral of Peter J. Nolan Sr. The funeral of Peter J. Nolan Sr. who died Thursday morning was held from his home, 20 Augustus Street at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning with services at Holy Family Church at 9 o'clock. Of the solemn requiem high Mass that was offered Sunday morning by Father McGarry. Officiating at the funeral were: Rev. Eugene McCarthy was deacon and Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Conway was sub-deacon. At the conclusion of the Mass the burial service was read. There were many Mass cards and floral tributes were numerous. Burial was in the family plot in St. Joseph's Cemetery, where the committal service was conducted by Monsignor Conway assisted by Father McGarry. Hearers were William Nolan, Jr., of Geneva, Robert and John Nolan of West Lake Road, William Caldwell, Charles Caldwell and Donald Nolan, grandsons of the deceased.

Members of the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church, of which Mr. Nolan was a member, conducted services at the home Sunday evening.

Discussion for Lincoln P.T. The Lincoln Parent-Teachers Association will have a panel discussion on "Meeting Behavior Problems" as part of their monthly program Wednesday afternoon, April 21. Taking part in the discussion will be Miss Mary Doane of the Child Welfare Department, Mrs. Lella Talley of the Police Department, Miss Dorothy Maywalt of West High School, Joseph Hatcher of the Recreation Department and Rev. Warren G. Odom, pastor of First Methodist Church, with Mrs. Byron Coomber leading the discussion.

There will also be a hobby show, exhibiting articles that children have made at home. The Nominating Committee will also report.

Speakers Will Explain Laws Of Marriage

Harry A. Gleason

The third in the series of lectures sponsored by the Auburn Council of Catholic Women will be held tomorrow evening in the Catholic Daughters' Home. The topic "Marriage Law" will be discussed by Attorney Harry A. Gleason, speaking on "Civil Law of Marriage" and the Rev. Dennis Hickey, speaking on "Church Law of Marriage." The Marriage-Preparation Course is open to engaged couples and interested married couples.

Harry A. Gleason, member of the law firm of Gleason & Doyle, was educated in Cortland and Syracuse University. For a number of years he was New York State tax commissioner and served two terms as corporation counsel of Auburn.

He is a member of St. Alphonsus Church and was formerly affiliated with St. Mary's parish. Long active in the civic and fraternal life of Auburn, he has been a member for many years of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, and was formerly associated with Mayor Edward T. Boyle in law practice.

Father Hickey, who served as an assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church from 1941 until 1946, is now secretary of the Rochester Diocesan Tribunal.

According to an announcement by Mrs. Eugene Kelley, chairman of the Committee on Family and Parent Education, the series will conclude on Monday evening, May 3, with a lecture by Dr. William L. Madden of Rochester, entitled, "A Doctor Looks at Marriage." The previously scheduled closing date of Tuesday, May 4, has been changed to accommodate other engagements of Doctor Madden, she explained.

Engaged couples and interested couples are still invited to attend any or all of the remaining lectures.

Seventh Day Adventists in Annual Drive

The Seventh-Day Adventist Church will hold its annual tag-day in Auburn, Tuesday, April 20. This will be part of its annual ingathering drive for mission and welfare work which is currently being carried on. The congregation plans to reach its $650 goal in a three-week solicitation campaign, according to Pastor F. A. Albridge.

The ingathering drive has been conducted annually for 10 years, and the denomination has set a goal of $2,500,000 in North America.

The Seventh-Day Adventists' relief organization reports shipment of more than 1,000 tons of clothing overseas and $2,500,000 expended for food for the starving in Europe and the Orient.

Umpires Wind Up Drill Clinic

Hershey, Pa., April 19.—(AP)—Umpires from 16 baseball leagues looked forward today to the opening games of the season after completing an intensive three-day drill here under the direction of George MacDonald, umpire in chief of the Eastern League.

The 34 umpires wound up their clinic yesterday with some outdoor work calling decisions at an inter-camp game between two squads of Jamestown Falcons, members of the Pony League.

Gerald P. Nugent, head of the Interstate League, and Ernest C. Landgraf, president of the North Atlantic Circuit, visited the clinic and gave short talks to the umpires.

Leaders Hold Place In Elks Pin Meet

Rochester, April 19.—(AP)—Chuck Bonick of Batlle Creek jumped into second place with a flossy 685 triple, but none of the leaders was disturbed during the week-end in the Elks National Bowling Tournament.

Bonick's three-game total was two pins short of the 687 with which Frank Stackowick of North Tonawanda leads the parade.

The Brown and Jones five-man team of Erie, Pa., unworldly scores of 909, 1,000 and 1,029 for 2938 to gain a fourth place tie with the defending champions, Stroh Bohemian beer of Detroit.

P. Smidt and G. Omsenius of Gary, Ind., topped a 1,238 total to take fourth place in the doubles. A 1,231 was good enough for fifth for C. Lacks and K. Adler of Madison, Wis.
