

BIVINS TOUGHEST FOE FOR LOUIS ON EXHIBITION TOUR

By LARRY SMITH
Cleveland, Nov. 15 (AP)—Heavyweight champion Joe Louis labels Jimmy Bivins the toughest opponent he has faced so far on his exhibition tour.

"I don't know why he shouldn't be a contender if he gets serious about his training," Louis said in his dressing room last night after engaging in a six-round no-decision affair with the Cleveland Negro.

"He threw two good right hand punches and I knew I was hit, but they weren't hard enough to bother me," the champion added. "Anyone who fights him has to be very careful."

With both fighters using 12-ounce gloves instead of the regulation eight, Bivins opened a cut above Louis' left eye in the second round. Joe received the wound originally November 8 when he accidentally bumped heads with Johnny Shor in an exhibition at Boston.

The cut bled only slightly, but Bivins opened it up again in the fourth.

Bivins did most of the leading, while Louis opened up only sporadically. He almost dropped Bivins with a right in the second when the two were in a neutral corner.

The champion jabbed most of the time and seemed content to take it easy, but opened up suddenly at one point in the fifth and drove Bivins to cover with a flurry of rights and lefts.

Although the exhibition was a no-decision affair, Matchmaker Larry Akins conducted a poll among spectators at ringside and reported the writers favored Bivins by a 9 to 5 vote. However, most everybody agreed that Louis had plenty in reserve.

Louis weighed 220 and had a 46-pound edge over Bivins, who appeared to be in extra good shape. A crowd of 10,086 saw the bout, which produced a gross gate of $47,591. Louis received $5 per cent.
