Many Weekend Accidents Within the City of Auburn

In addition to three major accidents which occurred just outside Auburn over the holiday weekend, local police reported a number of minor collisions in the city to which no one was reported seriously hurt.

Shortly after 8:20 a. m. Saturday cars operated by Milton W. North of Elbridge, and Stanley Leje, 77 Perrine St., collided on North St. No injuries were reported.

Hulbert Street
Officer Robert J. Randall made an investigation of an accident in front of 8 Hulbert St. at noon on Saturday.

A car owned by Dixon Blodgett, 35 44 Melrose Rd., was traveling north on Hulbert St. when a car coming in the opposite direction "crowded him over" to the right side of the road causing him to strike a station wagon parked by the curb, he said.

The station wagon is owned by Joseph Licato, 39, of 8 Hulbert St. Both the Blodgett car and the Licato station wagon were badly damaged in the smash.

Officers Walter C. Pitcher and Robert Ortopallo investigated an accident at 12:14 a. m. Sunday at the corner of Washington and Clark Sts.

A car operated by Milton James Mize, 27, of Hamburg, N. Y., collided with a car operated by Ronald D. Phillips, 20, of 34 French Ave., Owasso.

Mr. Phillips was driving north on Washington St. He told police that the Mize car went through a red light at the corner and struck his automobile which continued across the intersection and hit a fire hydrant on the north east corner of Clark St.

Road Wet
The road was wet from a drizzle, police said. They reported that the fire hydrant was not badly damaged.

Two passengers in the Mize car suffered minor injuries which did not require hospitalization. They were Miss L. Linn, 19, of Hamburg, N. Y., who cut her right knee and Miss P. Kruss, 17, of Bledell, who suffered a bump on her forehead.

Both cars were badly damaged and had to be towed from the scene.

Just before midnight Sunday one car rammed the rear of another, badly damaging both vehicles, police said.

The first car was operated by Harold W. Stoddard, Jr., 21, of 123 E. Fulton St. who reported to law officers that he was driving on Owasso St. near Genesee St. when a car rammed into the rear of his vehicle.

The second car was driven by Michael Doyle, 18, of Auburn RD 2, who is home on a week-end pass from destroyer duty with the U. S. Navy. His ship is now at Newport, R. I.

A mailbox was knocked over in the accident, police said. The motorist offered to make restitution of the mailbox and also for the $175 damage to the Stoddard car. The Doyle car was damaged also.

Pheasants to Go To 4-H Members

After 1,500 baby pheasants are distributed tonight at the 4-H Club at Emerson Park, a potential $1,500 will be placed in the hands of several Cayuga County boys and girls.

Part of a state-wide distribution of baby pheasants, the local project will be completed in seven weeks when the birds will be released by their owners.

For each bird released, the State Conservation Department will pay its owner $1. And the

ACCIDENT VICTIM RITES CONDUCTED

Services for John R. Muldoon of 44 Seminary St., who died as a result of an auto accident early Friday morning on Route 30, were held at 9:15 a. m. today at the Avery E. Neagle Funeral Home where prayers were offered by Rev. Frederick G. Straub.

A solemn high Mass of requiem was sung at 9:30 a. m. at St. Alphonse Church by the Rev. C. Irvin Sullivan assisted by the Rev. Clarence Gardner as deacon and Father Straub as sub-deacon. The Rev. Robert J. Downe, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, was in the sanctuary.

Delegations were present from the Theater Operators Union and the Catholic War Veterans.

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery where the prayers were offered by Father Straub assisted by Fathers Sullivan and Gardner.

The bearers were Robert Barton, Robert Sage, Henry Ghust, Thomas O'Neill, Joseph Costello, Thomas O'Brien Jr., Raymond Reilly and John Renahan.

PLAYGROUNDS TO BE OPEN TODAY

Though the calendar reads only June 2 today in Auburn, summer officially starts at 4 p. m. for hundreds of Auburn's younger generation.

Recreation Director Joseph Rutherford announced that five of the city's 14 playgrounds will open at 4 p. m. today. They'll remain open a 4 to 8 p. m. schedule until July 1, when the others will also be opened and all will go on a full time schedule.

For several weeks, Cyril (Jack) Morin and his recreation maintenance crew have been working on the grounds. They already have most of the parks in tip-top condition.

Capitol, Casey, Bradford, Sherwood and "Y" Field will be opened today. Directing activities at each of them will be the following:

Bradford—Miss Bella De Luca, Laverne Monroe and Miss Joan Smith; Capitol—Miss Marianne Sullivan, Robert Graney, Miss Joan Smith and Robert Treat; Casey—Miss Carol Bunn, Miss Mary Ward and Thomas Salva; Sherwood—Miss Patricia Casper, Robert Riley, and Miss Patricia Nicholas; "Y" Field—James Synula, Miss Eleanor Walrous and Miss Patricia Gallagher.

rural game supply will be enhanced by one more pheasant.

The state has been sponsoring similar projects for several years. In Cayuga County, a minimum of 25 birds is distributed to any one person.

Boys and girls throughout the county have applied for chicks and have been carefully screened to see that they can provide adequate facilities.

The Beacon Milling Company has donated feed which will also be handed out to those who receive the birds.

At the 4-H Club affair tonight will be Dr. John Schoole of Beacon Milling Co. and Leonard F. Dziedziec of the Conservation Department who will explain pheasant raising methods.

MRS. BRANNICK TO GO TO DEMOCRATIC DINNER

Mrs. Alice Brannick, 7 Parker St., Democratic state committee woman from Cayuga County, has accepted an invitation to attend a dinner in honor of Mayor Donald Kramer of Binghamton at the Arlington Hotel, Binghamton.

6 AIRMEN BEAT LOCAL YOUTH, 19

Richard Maywalt Bruised, Loose Teeth, In North Division Street Row

Six Sampson airmen attacked an Auburn boy shortly after midnight Saturday, according to the youth's father who reported the incident to police.

Charles Maywalt, of R. D. Auburn, said that his son, Richard, 19, was walking from one restaurant to another on North Division Street, Saturday night when a black car pulled up to the curb and six airmen jumped out.

"Two of them held him while the other four beat him", Mr. Maywalt said. "They kicked him and knocked him to the ground."

Mr. Maywalt went on to tell police that his son was struck on the face and about the body by the airmen who beat young Maywalt with their fists and kicked him. Then they left him on the ground.

Find Victim
Some time later two other airmen found young Maywalt on the ground. They picked him up and brought him to a nearby restaurant where he met a friend who drove him home.

Mr. Maywalt told Det. John Costello that his son's lips were swollen, and that he had lost several teeth in the battle. He also had a heel impression over his right eye, and bruises on other parts of his body, Mr. Maywalt said.

He was treated by a local physician when he arrived home.

Det. Costello and Lawrence H. Mentillo are carrying on an investigation of the incident. The reason for the assault was not known today.

Saturday, other invited guests include Paul E. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Democratic State Committee; Benjamin F. Wetzel, secretary of the committee; and Robert Wagner, president of the Borough of Manhattan.

Now Both Seek Missing Wallets

A husband and wife, both hurt in Saturday's auto accident on Route 20, are each missing wallets containing cash and papers.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Oppewal of 115 Hancock St., Southwest, Grand Rapids, Mich. Both are now patients at City Hospital recovering from injuries sustained in the accident.

On Saturday, Mrs. Oppewal reported to Deputy Sheriff Joseph Mastrolanni that her husband's wallet containing $100 was missing after the accident that happened on Rt. 20, a few miles east of Auburn.

Today, Mrs. Oppewal reported to the same deputy that her wallet, containing a comparatively small amount of money, has also been missing since the accident.

The deputy reported making a thorough search of the locality where the Oppewal car was struck by an auto driven by Joseph

Robert F. Wagner to Visit Auburn To Boom Harriman for President

Manhattan Borough President Robert F. Wagner will visit Auburn Tuesday to seek support of local Democrats for W. Averell Harriman for president.

Mr. Wagner, chairman of the state Harriman-for-President Committee, will speak to Democratic Party workers and farm and labor leaders at a dinner set for 7 p. m. Tuesday at the Osborne Hotel. He is expected to arrive here during the afternoon for a series of conferences and discussions.

The borough president is making Auburn a stop on his three-day tour of Upstate New York. He will arrive here after visiting Canandaigua and Seneca Falls, and will proceed to Syracuse on Wednesday.

Mr. Harriman, director of the Mutual Security Agency, is expected to be the "favorite son" candidate of New York State Democrats at the July presidential convention in Chicago.

The millionaire scion of a noted railroad family has been active in past 20 years, under the administrations of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

Mr. Wagner plans similar tours later to Buffalo, northern New York, the Hudson Valley, and Long Island.

Joseph J. Rooney, Democratic chairman for Cayuga County and former Auburn City Judge, will preside at Tuesday's dinner.

ROBERT F. WAGNER JR.
