

C. M. Sullivan Dies; War Vet, Held City Office

Charles M. Sullivan, 59, of 1 Chestnut St., husband of Elizabeth McKendrick Sullivan, died today in the Syracuse Veterans Hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Sullivan, who was a prominent figure in city veteran affairs, was city safety inspector for many years with office in Memorial City Hall.

Government—

(Continued from Page 1) to parts with the other Arab states.

They carried placard slogans rejecting any peace with Israel and calling for "liberation of the country from Israeli occupation."

The demonstrators were also protesting against an announced plan that last month's decree dissolving that Parliament was invalid.

The dissolution itself had been ordered by the then Prime Minister Hajri Majali in the wake of recent violent demonstrations against the anti-Communist Baghdad pact grouping.

Supported Fact The dissolution itself had been ordered by the then Prime Minister Hajri Majali in the wake of recent violent demonstrations against the anti-Communist Baghdad pact grouping.

Embassy to Washington

LONDON (UP)—Prime Minister Anthony Eden will send his top Middle East advisor to Washington next week with a sweeping five-point plan for Western action in the troubled mid-East, official sources disclosed today.

Would Grant Aid

Center piece of the project is a tentative plan for a fully-coordinated system of financial, economic and technical aid grants to the Middle East countries, the sources said.

Front Door Thief

Mrs. E. Donaldson Clapp of 44 South St. reported yesterday that a wreath and house number had been stolen from her door, police said this morning.

Leubner-Watts Rites Are Held

Mrs. Jasper E. Watts

Miss Marie Louise Leubner, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Leubner of Rose Hill, became the bride of Mrs. Jasper E. Watts, USNR, son of Mrs. Elvora Watts, Little Falls, last Saturday in St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Given in marriage, by her brother, Harry W. Leubner, the bride wore a princess style dress of nylon lace over tulle with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and chapel length train.

Best man was Edmund W. Leubner, a brother of the bride. Ushers were William T. and Frederick K. Leubner and Douglas MacIntosh.

Merger Planned By Presbyterians

FITTSBURGH (AP)—The Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Presbyterian Church of North America have drafted a plan to unite their three million members.

Regime—

(Continued from Page 1) of siege decreed Thursday night by Ibáñez.

Loyalty—

(Continued from Page 1) name when he appeared before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in its November, 1955 investigation of White's activities.

Ike—

(Continued from Page 1) first question-and-answer conference with reporters since Aug. 4 in Washington.

Front Door Thief

Mrs. E. Donaldson Clapp of 44 South St. reported yesterday that a wreath and house number had been stolen from her door, police said this morning.

Mrs. Ricks' Case Put Over To January 13

BROOKVILLE, Ont. (UP)—The case of Mrs. Virginia Ricks, an attractive four-times married American socialite, was put over until Jan. 13 when she appeared in the Brockville police court yesterday on a charge of murder.

Police accused Mrs. Ricks of shooting Knapp after a drinking party in her summer cottage on an island in Newboro Lake north of Brockville Dec. 29.

Club Helps Nixon Mark His Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon will be 43 years old Monday and unless all the signs fail he will observe the anniversary in political splendor.

Not since President Eisenhower was stricken with a heart attack last September has Nixon made what could be classified as a political speech.

H. H. Morgan Rites

Prayer services for Henry H. Morgan, who died unexpectedly Wednesday, were at 3 p.m. today at his home on Franklin St. Rd.

To Seek Re-Election

MORRIS, Ill. (AP)—William G. Stratton, one of Illinois' youngest governors, says he will seek a second term.

Throop Fire Record

The Town of Throop had an estimated fire loss of $2,225 during 1955, Fire Chief Raymond E. Lockwood reported to the Throop fire commissioners at their annual meeting at Throop Fire House this week.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

Cowboy Hero Lasts

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP)—Some heroes just naturally fade away, a Wittenberg College professor says, but the cowboy will live forever.

Order of Amaranth Seats Officers

Mrs. Robert C. Walker and Joseph H. Merkley, royal matron and royal patron of Cayuga Court 46, Order of Amaranth, received the gavel of their office last night during installation ceremonies in Masonic Temple.

Syracuse Radio Station Is Sold

SYRACUSE (UP)—The sale of Radio Station WFBL to the Founders Corp. of New York City for $227,500 was announced today.

4-H Meeting Dates

County 4-H club leaders will have five sectional meetings this month to discuss demonstration work and a 4-H health project.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

To Seek Re-Election

MORRIS, Ill. (AP)—William G. Stratton, one of Illinois' youngest governors, says he will seek a second term.

Throop Fire Record

The Town of Throop had an estimated fire loss of $2,225 during 1955, Fire Chief Raymond E. Lockwood reported to the Throop fire commissioners at their annual meeting at Throop Fire House this week.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

Cowboy Hero Lasts

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP)—Some heroes just naturally fade away, a Wittenberg College professor says, but the cowboy will live forever.

Navy Tries Freeing Vessel From Mud

Another attempt to pull the ship from her precarious position around in 10-foot water of Cape Henry was scheduled for later today, depending on the weather and the progress in dredging.

Policewoman On Duty at Rink

Mrs. Ardella Newkirk, Auburn policewoman, has been assigned to Hoopes Park during skating hours to supervise the club house there.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

Cowboy Hero Lasts

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP)—Some heroes just naturally fade away, a Wittenberg College professor says, but the cowboy will live forever.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

Cowboy Hero Lasts

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP)—Some heroes just naturally fade away, a Wittenberg College professor says, but the cowboy will live forever.

Slide and Bump

Cars driven by Paula Klink, 20, of Adams Ave. and Leland Finkle, 40, of Jordan, were damaged early yesterday afternoon in an Evans St. accident.

Cowboy Hero Lasts

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP)—Some heroes just naturally fade away, a Wittenberg College professor says, but the cowboy will live forever.

Copper Reaches Its Highest Price As Demand Booms

NEW YORK (AP)—In 1955, copper reached its highest price since the 1870's.

It was also a year of sustained demand—and higher prices—for most other precious metals, including lead, zinc, aluminum, nickel, silver, tin and platinum.

When 1955 opened, producers were working feverishly to step up production—strikes in the preceding year had caused a shortage.

AWARD FOR GOLFER

NEW YORK (AP)—National Amateur Champion Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco will receive the fourth annual Gold Tee Award of the Metropolitan Golf Writers Assn. at a dinner here Jan. 19.

FITTING HORSESHOES IN HOBBY

ALBANY (AP)—State Budget Director Paul Appleby's hobby, according to Who's Who in New York State, is pushing horseshoes.

Miss Reilley Weds George McClelland

Mrs. George McClelland

Miss Marie Reilley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reilley, 51 Hamilton Ave., became the bride recently of George McClelland, son of Mrs. Bernice McClelland, Brockport, N. Y.

AWARD FOR GOLFER

NEW YORK (AP)—National Amateur Champion Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco will receive the fourth annual Gold Tee Award of the Metropolitan Golf Writers Assn. at a dinner here Jan. 19.

FITTING HORSESHOES IN HOBBY

ALBANY (AP)—State Budget Director Paul Appleby's hobby, according to Who's Who in New York State, is pushing horseshoes.

Chinese Reds Warn on Stalling Geneva Talks

TOKYO (UP)—The Chinese Communists warned last night they would not consent to "the endless dragging out" of the negotiations between the United States and Red China at Geneva.

The statement was made by a Peiping foreign ministry spokesman in a broadcast that called again for a meeting between Red Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The found section of the Lost 8 Found column of the Chattanooga Times want ad section recently carried this item:

"Found—1 T. D. 18 International bulldozer."

New West German Army Begins Training

A soldier of the new West German army smiles as he leaves a supply barracks at Andernach training post this week with two carbines and clothing. Eight hundred more started their three-month basic training course, two carbines are of prewar German make but deliveries of new American weapons are reported to start next week.

9 Extra Dividend Days in January

Money you deposit here on or before January 9th will earn dividends from January 1st.

Open a savings account today with as little as $1.00 — as much as $10,000 — $20,000 in a joint account.

If you can't come in, use the coupon below — bank by mail. We pay postage both ways.

Mail this coupon to AUBURN SAVINGS BANK, 76 Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y.

I enclose $..... Please open a savings account as checked:

() Individual account in my name alone.

() Joint account with

() Trust account for

Print name in full

Address

Town, village or city and state

(When possible, please do not use a postage meter)

Auburn SAVINGS BANK

Under the Town Clerk—GENESEE AT SOUTH MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

