Foes of Castro Given Death Sentences

SANTIAGO, Cuba, (AP) - A Cuban military tribunal yesterday sentenced insurgent ex-Capt. Manuel Beaton, 30, and two accomplices to death for crimes against the state.

Ordered executed with Beaton were his brother, Cipriano, and Felipe Martinez.

Another member of Beaton's mountain band, which opposed Castro for months, was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment. Three others were sentenced to 20 years. One was sentenced to five years and seven were sentenced to serve reformatory sentences until they reached maturity. One was acquitted.

The Beaton brothers and Martinez appealed their death sentences, which are now subject to review by a special higher tribunal.
